

“2nd Announcement” of Call for Papers (Due Extended)

The 11th Meeting of the Port-city Universities League, Incheon, Korea.

The 11th Meeting of the Port-city Universities League (PUL) organized by Incheon National University, the Incheon Metropolitan City, and Incheon Port Authority is held from September 18 to 20, 2017 at Songdo Convensia (<http://www.songdoconvensia.com/>) at Incheon, South Korea. Known as the “Gateway to Korea” and the “Hub of Northeast Asia,” Incheon is a city that is closest to the world with its hub airport and seaport, and aims to become an international business and logistics center. The tentative topics of the 11th PUL meeting are listed below:

Tentative topics

Naval Architecture	Energy	Marine Pollution/Environmental Management
Onshore Engineering	Smart Port Development	Oceanography and Surveying
Offshore Engineering	Law and Business	Port and Coastal Management and Planning
Logistics, Coastal	Disaster Management	History and Archaeology
Marine Science	Human Factors	Others

Please promptly send paper topic, author(s), and affiliation(s) to the PUL secretariat (pul@ynu.ac.jp) by July 31, 2017. Full paper (minimum 4 pages) should be submitted by August 20, 2017 to the PUL secretariat (pul@ynu.ac.jp). The template of the full paper is available on website (<http://www.pul.ynu.ac.jp/index.html>) or is obtainable by email request from the PUL secretariat (pul@ynu.ac.jp). For each member institution of PUL, accommodation including hotel (Orakai Songdo Park Hotel, 151, Techno park-ro, Yeonsu-gu, Incheon, Incheon, 406-840 South Korea, 866-539-5067) rooms of two participants (two rooms) will be provided by hosting institutions (Incheon National University, Incheon Metropolitan City and Port of Incheon).

INCHEON
NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

인천광역시
Incheon Metropolitan City

THE FIRST PORT TO SUCCESS
PORT OF INCHEON